Meet the Newsletter Editor – Suzanne Pait

Suzanne has enjoyed dancing her whole life as she started dancing ballet and jazz at the tender age of five. She continued her ballet experience throughout her college years and can be found grooving in the kitchen while cooking dinner. Just last November, 2013, she discovered the Contra dance scene, and in June of this year, she broadened her dance horizons to include Tango.

Suzanne recently took over as the Newsletter Editor position for the CFOOTMAD newsletter. Of the CFOOTMAD dances, Suzanne says, "I love to contra dance. I enjoy meeting all the wonderful people at CFOOTMAD. Contra dancing makes me laugh; it is a great stress release." She would like to see, and participate in, a Contra Dance Flash Mob.

When Suzanne is not busy dancing, she works as an assistant principal at a K - 8 charter school in Aurora, or you may find her reading, hiking, or spending time with family and friends.

A little tidbit about Suzanne is that she is "a crazy Jane Austen fan." Look for Suzanne at the Contra dances and give her a warm welcome to our community.
